About BuxMont

For over 50 years, BuxMont Unitarian Universalist Fellowship has served as a center of UU life in Bucks and Montgomery Counties. BuxMont's mission is to provide a welcoming congregation that supports the cooperative quest for religious and ethical values without requiring a belief in any single creed. As part of its mission, the Fellowship supports the UU principles and purposes, including affirming justice, equity, and compassion in human relations.

Rev. Sinkford came for our banner dedication.

The Fellowship is headquartered in a historic building (originally a nineteenth-century creamery) that was purchased by BuxMont's original members in 1963. As the BuxMont community has grown, the building has been renovated and transformed into a light-filled meeting place serving over 200 current members and friends of the Fellowship.

This year we are asking for everyone's participation in our stewardship campaign with the theme

Celebrate Our Community- Build Our Future.

By sustaining BuxMont through our pledges, we simultaneously celebrate the creation of our Fellowship as a beacon in the community for UU principles and carry our Fellowship forward into a bright future.
